Consulate-General of Japan in Hong Kong

NOTICE OF CLOSURE OF THE LIBRARY

Due to renovations to be carried out from autumn 2009 to spring 2010 and the resulting reduction in floor space, the library services of the Consulate-General of Japan in Hong Kong will regrettably be terminated on Friday, 21 August 2009.

We would like to thank users of our library services for their support over the years and apologise for any inconvenience the closure of the library may cause.

(Note: The office hours of the visa section will not be affected during the renovation work.)
