

Hong Kong citizen's sudden passing during his visit to Japan

We, the Consulate-General of Japan in Hong Kong, extend our deepest condolences at the sad news of a Hong Kong citizen, Mr. CHAN Ka Yu's sudden passing during his visit to Japan.

While we hear the news with deep regret, it is our sincere desire to continue to take the utmost care on the safety of Hong Kong citizens visiting Japan. We will welcome the visitors to Japan wholeheartedly.