

Application Procedure for a Single Entry Temporary Visitor Visa (Applicants with nationalities of Russia / CIS (The Commonwealth of Independent States) countries / Georgia)

The following is the visa application procedure for temporary visits of up to 90 days for such purposes as sightseeing; visits to relatives, friends, or acquaintances; and short-term business affairs from applicants with nationalities of Russia / CIS countries (Armenia / Azerbaijan / Belarus / Kazakhstan / Kyrgyz / Moldova / Tajikistan / Turkmenistan / Ukraine / Uzbekistan) / Georgia. All of the above purposes for journeys to Japan exclude engaging in any activity involving the management of business or remuneration.

1 Who can submit a visa application?

Hong Kong or Macau residents who are currently residing in Hong Kong or Macau are eligible to make visa applications here.

- (Note 1) Temporary visitors are not eligible for visa applications. Hong Kong or Macau residency visas as well as Hong Kong or Macau ID cards need to be shown. For those with residency visas expiring during their period of stay in Japan, please extend the residency visa before visa application.
- (Note 2) In principle, applicants must submit their visa applications to the Japan Visa Application Centre in person. Only family members (excluding minors) from the same residential address are permitted to make submissions on behalf of the applicant and relationship proofs such as marriage certificate or birth certificate have to be presented upon application. Even in the case of applying for family members, an application form must be signed by the applicant (for minors who are not yet in school, a parent may sign on his/her behalf).

2 Necessary Documents

Please prepare the documents listed in 「List of Basic Documents to be submitted for a Single Entry Temporary Visitor Visa」。

- (Note 1) Original documents should be submitted within 3 months of their issuance. Please note that photocopied documents and documents without appropriate chops and signatures are not acceptable (in the case of documents issued by companies, a company chop and representative's seal or signature are required; in the case of documents issued by individuals, a personal seal or signature is required).
- (Note 2) Please note that an application will not be accepted unless all required documents are presented (including photocopied documents and documents where appropriate chops and signatures are required).
- (Note 3) Basically, visa examination is based on all the documents submitted. However, please note that applicants may be requested to provide any other documents deemed necessary.
- (Note 4) In principle, the passport must be kept in the consulate during the period of visa examination.
- (Note 5) Please note that all submitted documents, except passports, will not be returned to the applicants.

3 Visa Issuance

In principle, processing of the visa application takes around 1 week from the date of submission (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays announced by the Consulate-General of Japan in Hong Kong).

Please note that it is possible that a visa may not be issued even though all the necessary documents are submitted.

- (Note 1) The duration of visa processing may vary if the applicant's documents are incomplete, or he/she is requested to submit additional documents, or the consulate has to make inquiries to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo.
- (Note 2) Upon collection, a third party may collect the result on his or her behalf (except for those who are specially instructed to collect the visa in person). The receipt which is issued by the Japan Visa Application Centre and Hong Kong or Macau identity card of the third party must be presented.
- (Note 3) The validity of the visa is 3 months, it cannot be extended.
- (Note 4) Please note that we will not answer any enquiries about the reasons for not issuing a visa.

(Note) Please write the activities planned in Japan in detail, the flight numbers and airports/ports to be used for arrival and departure, and the place of stay in detail (in case of a hotel: its name, address and the phone number).

Points to be noted for Necessary documents prepared by the guarantor in Japan

1 Letter of reason for invitation (original) (Specific format)

(Note 1) State the purposes of entry in detail, explain activities planned in Japan. (Describe the specific activities, instead of vague references such as “visiting acquaintances” or “visiting relatives”).

(Note 2) In the column for an inviting person, make sure to specify his/her full name, the address and the phone number. For the purpose of short-term business affairs, etc., please stamp the company seal or representative’s seal at the end of the full name. Private seals are unacceptable. In case your company/organization does not have an appropriate seal, a hand written signature by the person in charge is acceptable.

(Note 3) Write the full name of an applicant using the Roman alphabet. When there are two or more applicants, write in “xx additional applicants, as shown in an attached list of names” following the full name of the representative applicant, and attach a list that enumerates the nationalities, full names, occupations and dates of birth of all the applicants.

2 Schedule of stay (original) (Specific format)

(Note) Please follow the standard of Necessary documents prepared by the applicant.

3 Letter of guarantee (original) (Specific format)

(Note 1) The Letter of Guarantee may be omitted if the inviting person is in a position equivalent to or higher than the director of a section of a ministry, agency or office of the Japanese Central Government, or if the person is in a position equivalent to or higher than the head of a section of an independent administrative research institution of the nation or a professor/associate professor of a university, and the visa applicant is being invited in the course of the inviting person’s work.

(Note 2) Make sure to complete all items in the Letter of Guarantee, as the omission of even a single item renders it incomplete (the same goes for an omission of a seal).

(Note 3) Complete the form in the same manner as the Letter of Reason for Invitation.

(Note 4) A foreigner is only eligible to be a guarantor if he/she is residing in Japan with employment status (excluding dependents).

4 Documents of the Inviting Organization (original)

(Note 1) When the same relevant documents as those for the last visa application have already been submitted to the Consulate-General of Japan in Hong Kong in the same calendar year, submission of copies of those documents will suffice.

(Note 2) In the case of an invitation by a university professor/associate professor, submit the certificate of employment (original) instead.

5 Relevant documents from the guarantor in Japan (original)

(Note 1) In the case of self-employment, a copy of the business license certificate or corporate registration, etc.

(Note 2) For documents showing ability to support the travel expenses, please submit at least one of the following documents. Please note that Statement of Tax Withholding (gensen-chosyu-hyou) is not acceptable.

- ① A certificate should indicate the gross income for the previous year, please submit either:

The latest Certificate of Income / Taxation issued by the head of administration of the place of residence (original).

or

A certificate of tax payment (Form 2) issued by the director of the tax office (original).

- ② The counterfoil of final tax return with the seal of reception of the tax office (copy).
(In the case of e-Tax, please submit the print-out of “Receipt notification” and “Final tax return”.)
- ③ A certificate of deposit balance in the name of the guarantor (original).

(Note 3) For the certificate of residence, only versions for household use are acceptable (with description of his/her family relationship with all family members). If the guarantor is a foreign national, please submit the certificate with all matters listed (only Resident Record Code can be omitted).

(Note 4) In the case of Japanese as the guarantor, please submit the copy of passport including bio-data page and pages with immigration stamps of entry/departure to Japan. In the case of a foreigner as the guarantor, please submit the copy of passport including bio-data page and pages with residency visas and immigration stamps of entry/departure to Japan, together with the copy of both sides of the valid Residence Card.
