

In relation to Working Holiday Visa applications

The Working Holiday Programmes are designed to promote international interaction and enhance friendly relationship between Japan and partner countries/regions by providing opportunities for the young people to deepen their understanding about partner countries/regions.

The Working Holiday participants are allowed to work for a certain period of their stay in order to cover the cost of travel funds to travel and stay in partner countries/regions.

This programme is not designed for persons who mainly intend to work. The applicants' primary purpose of stay should be "holiday" in Japan.

So the applicants who intend to work primarily cannot apply for this visa. And the Working Holiday participants are strictly prohibited from working at places affecting public morals such as bars, cabarets, nightclubs and etc.

Please apply for this visa after understanding the purpose of this programme.
